Moderato.

The old church-bells were ringing as they climbed the lit-tle hill, And He stands be-side the riv-er where the moon-beams fall so bright, While watch'd the riv-er wind-ing to the West, The night-in-gale sang sweet-ly and it from the trees the fa-ded leaves drift down, As with his thoughts of by-gone days he seemed to them its thrill, Spoke of the hap-py days they loved the best. They looks in-to the night, And sees the lights shine in the dis-tant town. He

CHORUS

Chorus.

Neath the old a-corn tree, sweet Es-telle, I'll re-turn, love's old sto-ry to tell, When the gold of the day turns to gray, And you list to the old vil-lage bell, Let my love in your heart ev-er dwell, You may know lit-tle girl all is well, With a heart ev-er true, I'll re-turn dear to you, Neath the old a-corn tree sweet Es-telle, Neath the telle.
